Churning out music for almost a decade, Chris Komus aka Lo Progression is a psychedelic trance producer from Winnipeg, Canada. Focusing now on producing the full-on sounds under Lo Progression and progressive psy/progressive house/tech house/and minimal sounds as Chris Komus, his sound is versatile, eclectic, and always evolving. Having experimented with various other genres of music prior to psytrance, Lo Progression borrows from a variety of genres and infuses it into dance-floor heavy, epic, and loud rockin' psychedelic music to the more melodic, groovy, techy and progressive sounds of progressive house and progressive psy.

Lo Progression @ Winnipeg Psychedelic's
Psyent Night (Dec '07)

With a busy schedule of gigs on the Canadian prairies, both as a Live PA act and also as a DJ act, Lo Progression is known as one of the key players in bringing psytrance to Winnipeg. He has opened for Infected Mushroom (Sept '07 and Mar '06), Hallucinogen (June '07), Nuclear Ramjet (Feb '08), and played at Connect Festival in Saskatchewan (Aug '07 & '08), and opened for minimal tech acts such as Ryan Elliot (Dec '07) and Maetrik (Apr '08).

Lo Progression is also involved in pushing the psychedelic sound as co-promoter and resident DJ of Winnipeg Psychedelic Productions, the only crew in Winnipeg currently promoting the psychedelic sound.

With a full length CD now finished, Just This Life, plans are in the works to have it released commercially.
